Philadelphia, PA—April 5, 2006—Jacobs Law Group, P.C.(www.jacobslawpc.com) is proud to announce that attorneys Kevon Glickman and Matthew Cohen, will be teaching “Music Business Management” for the spring semester at Cabrini College. The course, which started March 21, will run for six weeks and is sponsored by the KAJEM Recording Arts Program. The course will cover the following objectives: Basic Introduction to Contracts, Intellectual Property, Business Dynamics, and Music Publishing.

Mr.Glickman, a veteran in the music business, is President of Respect Management, LLC as well as Senior Attorney, Entertainment Chair, with the Jacobs Law Group, PC. From 1999 to 2002 Kevon was President and Chief Operating Officer of Ruffnation Records, a joint venture with Warner Bros. Records. From 1994 to 1999 Kevon was Sr. Vice President/General Counsel for Ruffhouse Records, a joint venture with Sony Entertainment, which sold over 50 million albums in the urban and dance genres. Notably, Ruffhouse was responsible for the highest selling rap album of all time, The Fugees’, The Score, which also garnered two Grammy Awards, and Lauryn Hill’s, The Miseducation of Lauryn Hill, which won five Grammy Awards. Some of Glickman’s present music clients are Rick Ross on Slip N Slide/Def Jam, Trina on Atlantic, and Kulcha Don on Ruffnation. Mr. Glickman is also the publisher of soulstress Leela James. He is also a frequent lecturer at Temple University, Drexel, and Widener Law School and is a member of the New Jersey, New York, and Pennsylvania Bars.

Mr.Cohen, Chairman of Intellectual Property practice for Jacobs Law Group, specializes his practice in obtaining and enforcing IP rights and is registered to practice before the US Patent and Trademark Office. Mr.Cohen has been practicing law for over 10 years. Prior to his legal career, Mr.Cohen worked in the electronic component industry. He is a frequent lecturer on the IP implications of business transactions and contracts.

About Jacobs Law Group

The Jacobs Law Group, PC is a boutique business law firm based in Center City Philadelphia. Founded in 1999 by Managing Attorney and Principal Neal A. Jacobs the Firm’s mission is to provide a fresh alternative to the traditional large, national law firms. Witnessing a trend among larger law firms to shift their focus and attention towards ever-larger clients, including Fortune 500 companies, Mr. Jacobs conceived the Jacobs Law Group as a firm designed to meet the critical corporate law and litigation needs of middle-market companies and entrepreneurs. Based on the Firm’s rapid and impressive growth in terms of clients, matters and attorneys the Jacobs Law Group concept has clearly been well received. The Firm’s founding principles have been so well received that the Jacobs Law Group, PC is a three-time Philadelphia 100 award winner, confirming its status as one of the fastest growing businesses in the Greater Philadelphia area.
